Dear Sir/Madam,

I hope this letter finds you well.

As a candidate for the United States House of Representatives from Colorado's 5th Congressional District, I am writing to inform you that my campaign has adhered to a budgetary constraint and has spent a total of less than $5,000 to date.

In compliance with the Federal Election Commission's guidelines and reporting requirements, I confirm that the expenditure for my campaign has not exceeded the $5,000 threshold. I have maintained meticulous records of all transactions and financial activities related to my candidacy, and I am prepared to provide any further documentation or details upon request.
